Why Bulgaria? Rebecca and Chris Answer

Seventeen years is how long it takes to raise a human being and prepare them for independent living; 17 years is the average time it takes to pay off a mortgage. The full course of education from kindergarten to university lasts about as long. In 17 years, the average person in the US will have changed four jobs. Rebecca and Chris Matlon’s commitment to Bulgaria’s prosperity and democracy has not wavered in 17 years.
