COVID-19 brought on many challenges for Bulgaria, but it is also unleashing innumerable acts of kindness.

In the course of our daily work, hundreds of examples of Bulgarians going out of their way to help other Bulgarians are brought to our attention. Whether it is individuals banding together to deliver food and medicine to their fellow citizens, or local NGOs stepping up to care for the elderly or to facilitate online learning for our children, the outpouring of support has been extraordinary.

Every week, we will bring you a sampling of the stories that inspire us. We hope they will inspire you too and convince you that good is, in fact, more contagious than the virus.

Food Shortage in Your Area? Your Local Baker Has Your Back

Bulgaria’s favorite on-the-move breakfast and a go-to snack at all times of the day, banitsa is Bulgaria’s favorite on-the-move breakfast and a go-to snack at all times of the day. The popular cheese-and-egg-filled phyllo-dough pastry is sold at shops strategically placed in city areas with a lot of foot traffic.

Professional Chefs Roll Up Their Sleeves against COVID-19

When Bulgaria declared a state of emergency on March 13, restaurants closed their doors to diners, and educational establishments moved their classes online. For HRC Culinary Academy, this posed a double challenge.
