

And the awards go to...

When “Access Denied” Gives You Power, Not Pause

Access to Information Programme’s annual awards honor citizens and organizations defending Bulgarians’ right to know.

Keep Reading

On the Connecting Power of Social Distancing

Covid-19 is an ongoing global challenge, but the widespread empathy it has engendered may be bringing us closer together.

Keep Reading

Will Someone Else Decide Instead of You?

Ralitsa Tchobanova’s illustrated story “Dear Diary” explores youth indifference and its causes. The author’s unspoken question for her peers is: Are you cool enough to care and take matters into your own hands?

Keep Reading

Hands-on Education

What Kind of Citizen Will You Grow Up to Be?

The success of Bulgarian democracy hinges on citizens’ active and responsible participation in public life.

Keep Reading

A Business Cluster Is Helping Redefine Vocational Training

An ABF-supported program will equip vocational school students from Plovdiv with the practical skills to find well-paid industrial jobs.

Keep Reading

Spread the good

Please share our content with your friends if you like it. Thank you!

